

Thursday, May 23, 2019 - Glasgow Caledonian University

8.45am – 9.15am

Coffee, Networking and Conference Registration

9.15am – 9.25am

Conference Welcome

Chair – Dr Lesley Sawers

Donald Martin – Editor, The Herald & The Herald on Sunday

9.25am – 9.30am

Welcome from Professor Pamela Gillies CBE FRSE

Principal and Vice Chancellor

Glasgow Caledonian University

9.30am – 9.50am

Ministerial Address, Christina McKelvie MSP,

Minister for Older People and Equalities

“Making Scotland the Most Age Friendly Society in the World”

Q&A

9.55am – 10.15am

Tom Winstanley, Vice President, Innovation, NTT DATA UK

Technology & Innovation “How Technology will drive

Innovation and the Ageing agenda – Learnings from

Japan”

Q&A

10am

Exhibition Opens to members of the Public

10.15am – 10.45am

Intergenerational Bites Panel Discussion

Facilitator – Sandy Kennedy, Chief Executive,

Entrepreneurial Scotland

Intergenerational Mentoring, MCR Pathways

Mentor – Mary Hunter Toner & Mentee – Billy McMillan

Entrepreneurship – Age is no limit

Laura Birrell, Founder, Sticky Heelz

Dianne Teo, Founder, T30 Fitness

10.45am-11.00am

Professor Dawn Skelton, Glasgow Caledonian University

Getting Scotland Moving

11.00am – 11.30am

Comfort Break & Networking

Cultural Performance

Milan Day Care Centre, Kirkintilloch

11.30am – 11.45am

Health & Wellbeing “The 100 Year Life”

Esther Roberton

Chair NHS 24

Q&A

11.45am – 12.15pm

Health & Wellbeing Panel Discussion

Ian Buchanan, Disability Equality Scotland

Rohini Sharma Joshi, Trust Housing Association

Dr Donald Macaskill, Scottish Care

Margaret Morrison, NTT DATA UK

Q&A

12.15pm – 12.30pm

Rachel Lloyd, Director, Message House

Business & Economy “The Longevity Dividend”

12.30pm – 1.00pm

Business & Economy

Angie Kirkwood, Scottish Widows

Reuben Overmark, Association of Business Insurers (ABI)

Craig Vickery, ACCA Scotland

Anne Willmot, Business in The Community

Question time discussion with panel & audience

Q&A

1.15pm

Closing remarks

1.30pm

Conference concludes

4.00pm

Exhibition closes to members of the public